DIARY No. 2557

30th December 1921

Dear Mr. Jayarama Iyer,

I understand that the Gumbuz Garden (at Seringapatam) is in a neglected condition. May I suggest the Superintendent, Government Gardens, being asked to look after it ? He has got an Overseer there who is in charge of the Daria Doulat Garden, and he can easily look after this too. This, it seems to me, would be infinitely better arrangement than the present one. At present the gardeners do what they like and nobody seems to be responsible for the proper upkeep of the garden.

Yours sincerely,

Mirza M. Ismail

2. The handing over of the Gumbuz Garden at Seringapatam means more than merely having pretty flower beds owing to the considerable revenue we get for the Gumbuz from the mango garden.

3. I therefore beg that you will not take any further steps without consulting me in the matter.
